

THE NUST NETWORK: Barcelona Business Network for a working-time arrangements.

THE NUST NETWORK

What is the network's reason for being?

Figure 1.6 Statutory normal weekly hours around the world (2017)

Source: Based on information provided by reporting countries and ILO databases.

Sixth European Working Conditions Survey: Overview report

Figure 37: Work intensity index, by country, EU28

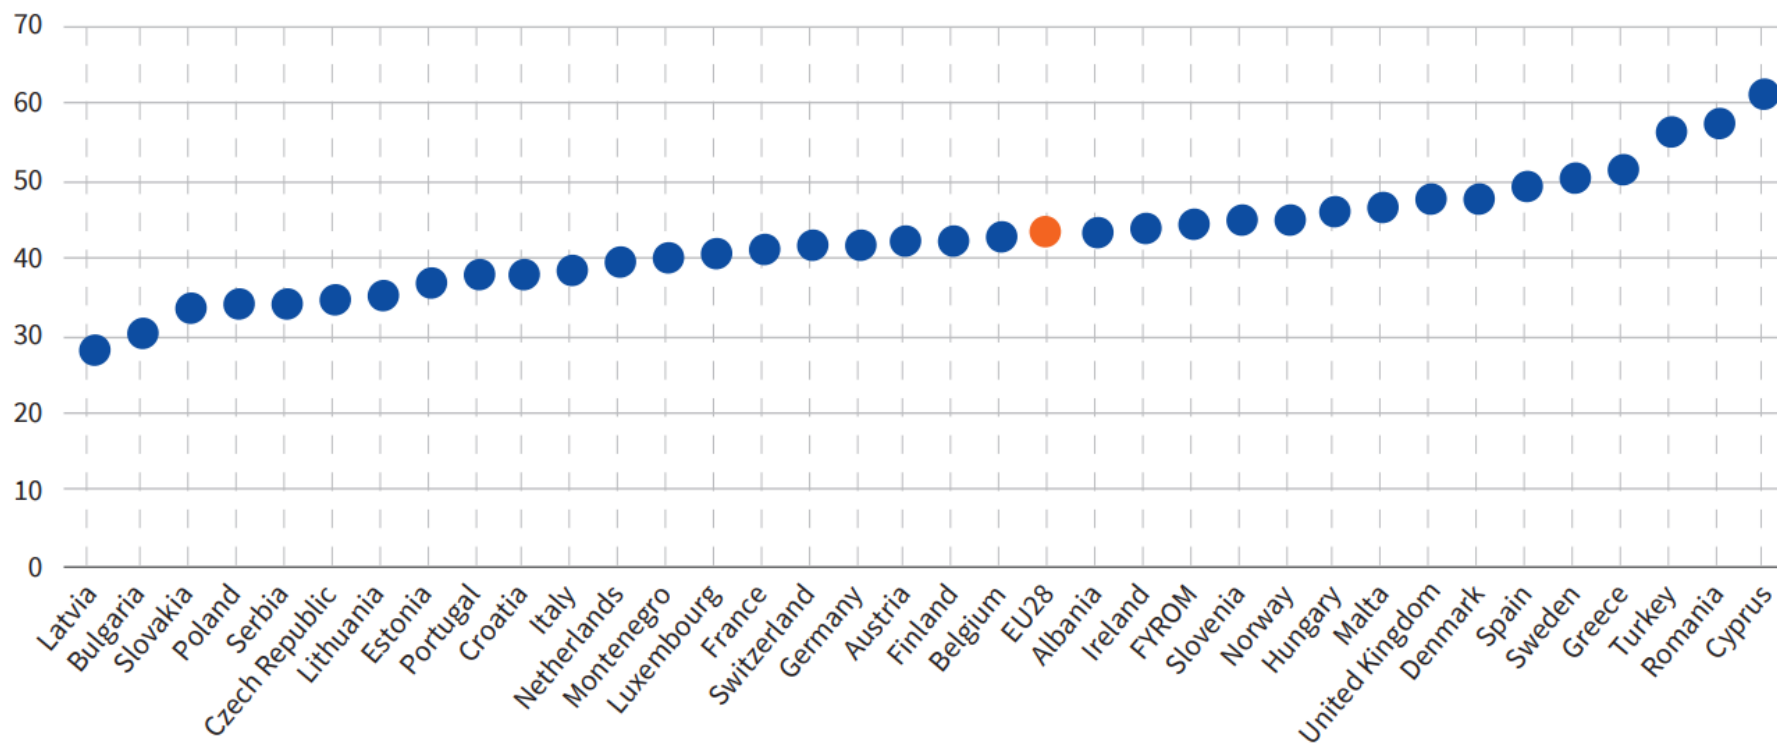

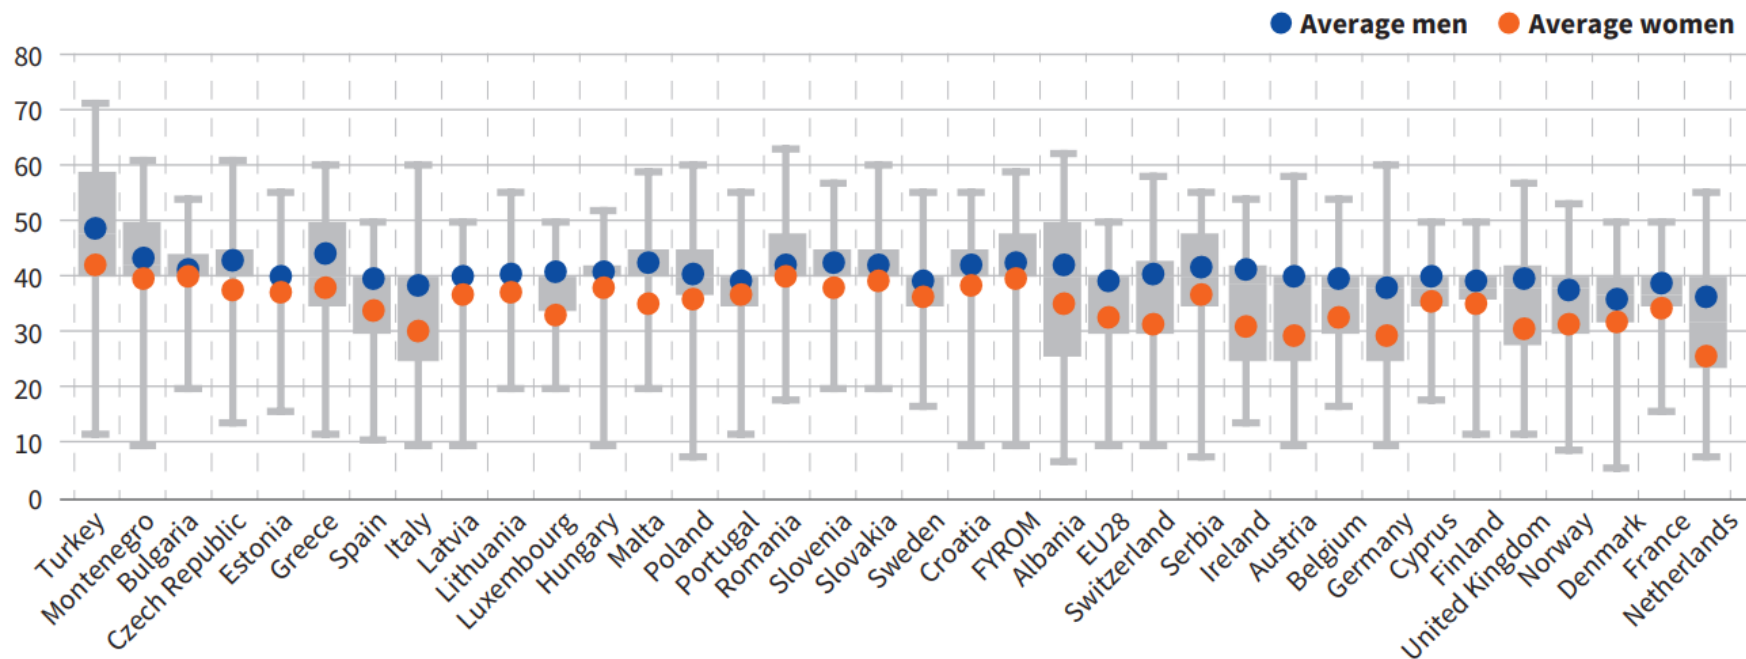

Figure 41: Usual weekly working hours, by country and sex, 2015

Note: The grey box represents the interquartile range (i.e. 50% of workers fall within the box limits) and the lines (whiskers) represent the 5th and 95th percentiles.

THE NUST NETWORK

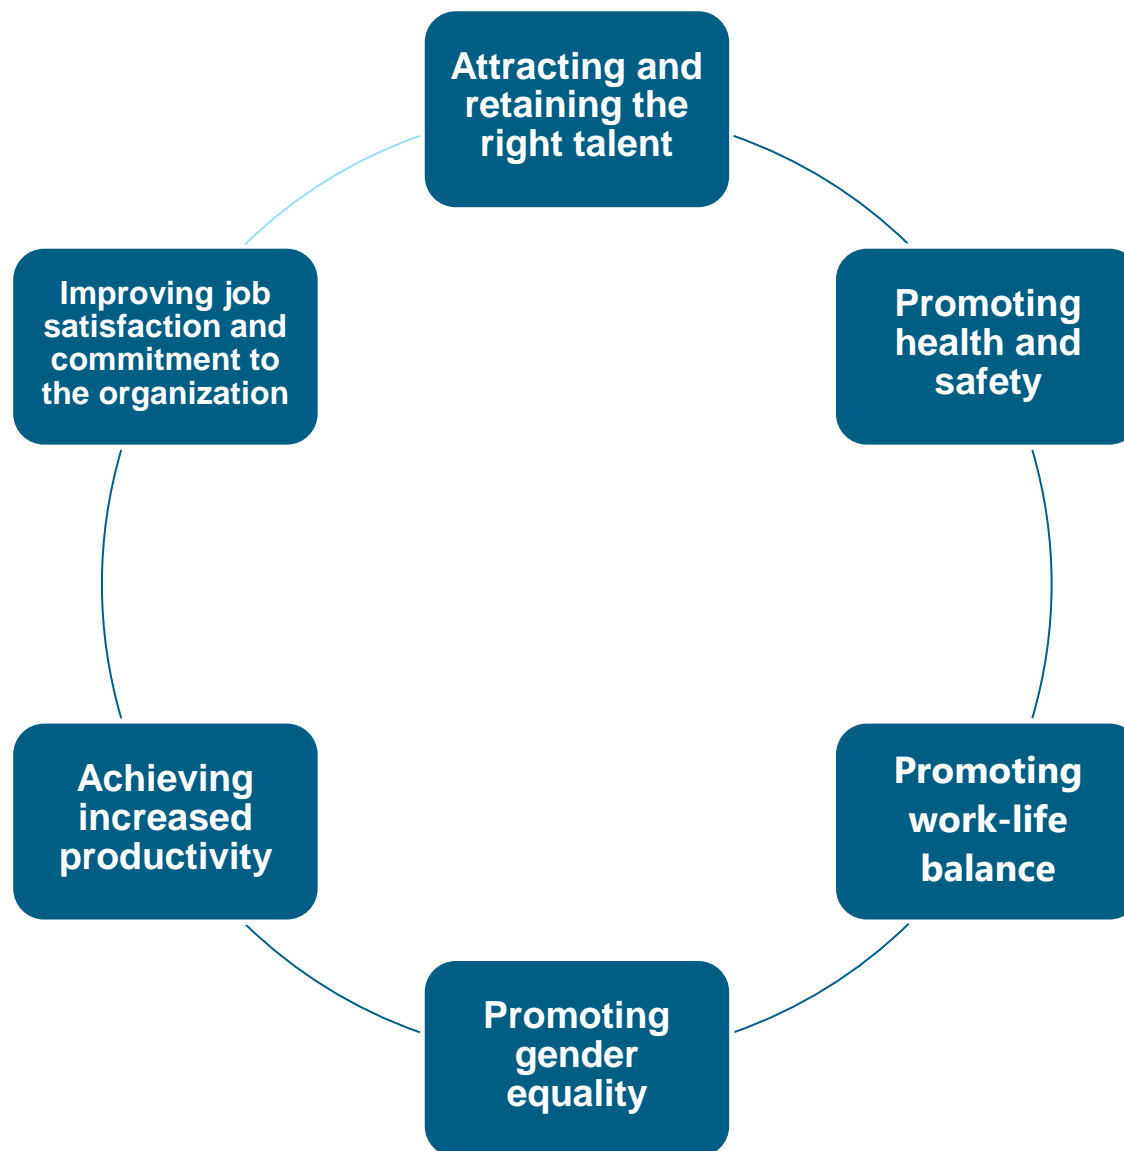

Who is the Network for?

The NUST Network is a local business network and a learning community focused on improving better, balanced and flexible working-time arrangements

Raise awareness on benefits of flexible working time arrangements

Boosting a new culture of work and working time

Business benefits

THE NUST NETWORK

What type of collaborative activities the network undertake?

THE NUST NETWORK

Aims of the NUST NETWORK

Visibility and raise awareness

Share Knowledge

Recognition of best practices

Exchange of innovative experiences

NUST NETWORK, A LEARNING COMMUNITY

Supporting change through learning opportunities

- ✓ Information exchange
- ✓ Good practices dissemination
- ✓ Workshops
- ✓ Mentoring and peer-to-peer support

Ajuntament de Barcelona

Barcelona Activa

DEBAT AMB LES EMPRESSES

#Barcelona

Mentoring Program

a peer-to-peer support methodology focused on improving the organizations of time in companies.

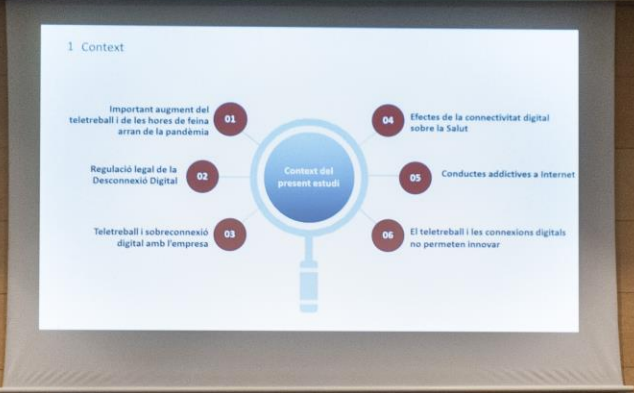

Identify better practices related to change

Creation of the annual award for innovative companies in time organization (10 years and more than 40 awarded companies)

<https://ajuntament.barcelona.cat/tempsicures/en/content/10th-edition-prize-year-2021>

Thank you very much!